One by one they are coming back home those people who cussed out the town and moved away a year or two ago

The best way in the world to make a Houston County man satisfied with his home is to let him go away and try to locate elsewhere

You may not be able to teach an old dog new tricks but if you just let him alone he will lie around and take the time and forget his old ones

Cotton will soon be coming in and we will give a year's subscription to The Eagle to the first man who presents us with a bale. We cannot hold the offer open and would therefore advise that the bale of cotton be dumped off at the front of the office the first opportunity

Since we have been old enough to vote, we have yet to meet the first candidate who didn't have his opponent skinned a mile. They are all optimistic up till the last vote is counted and then they look like they had their assessments run up on them

If the voters would be honest and frank with the candidates, it would be a great saving of time and money But one never feels that he can afford to come out and tell a half dozen of his friends that he will not vote for them, for he feels they are better fitted for something else Nothing else to be done about it, but to let them go all the way and some go almost alone

There is something strange about politicians You may call a man away from his plowing and put him in the saddle, and give him the reins of some minor office to hold put him there too just for convenience– and it will not be three months before that man will be talking of his "strength," and then his "following" and later he wil have "views" about public matters Next thing you know he will be speaking of "platforms constituencies, my folks," etc with the ease of a statesman When once he gets the taste of honey, he can hear the buzzing of the busy bee forever

THEY LOOK GOOD

It doesn't matter what the man says, woman is going to wear the things that some one in London or Paris, says she must wear

Word has been passed along that it is right and proper that the woman wear a thing made like the little gingham aprons she wore when she first began to attend school years years ago They have just a hint at the hour glass shape not enough to tell it much and we don't know what they are called It is possibly safer to call them just dresses, for society might not have advanced far enough to call them gowns right out like that

It was not meant to criticise and ridicule them, but rather to brag on how nice and becoming they look They appear easy to wear and we have yet to see the woman who doesn't enjoy wearing one of them

If a woman can put on one of these things or take it off by herself, they will be a success, but if the cook and the neighbors are to

CLEANING UP

There is some cleaning up going on in this town There will be much more of it too within the next few days or a lot of citizens with fines, sentences and penalties placed against them will be howling about their treatment

The man who does not clean up his home and make it a healthy place of abode for his family and his town should have something done to him There is not much the matter with the residence streets but grass and weeds [illegible] there may be much more of [illegible] in this out of track when it is allowed to go wild all over town

There is no use arguing the question [illegible] and [illegible] about a place in high in the fence or [illegible] and resting places for mosquitoes Wherever mosquitoes hang out there will be a case of malaria and fever so the doctors say The work about the place might be done in a day but the bills that a case of sickness might run up are bills that will hang on with an earnestness of purpose till the Christmas Holidays [illegible]

The town has given warning fully and freely that things had to be put in shape [illegible] sent around to places to inspect the down town situation and as a result several [illegible] have been [illegible] at and [illegible] within [illegible]

No [illegible] town officials [illegible] the rest of the town would be on them [illegible] to do right and then let the kick come on

STANDARD GRADES OF COTTON

One of the greatest inconveniences in the cotton trade in the past has been the absence of a standard of grades of cotton and in order to remedy the [illegible] act making appropriations for the department of agriculture for the year ending June 30 1910 contained a provision authorizing the secretary of agriculture to establish standard of nine different grades of cotton [illegible] to be used as standard classifiers, by fixing a standard of middling cotton and [illegible] same as a basis establishing standard of nine different grades to be designated middling fair strict good middling good middling strict middling middling strict low middling low middling strict good ordinary and good ordinary. The secretary of agriculture was further authorized to prepare and [illegible] from the standard of said grades and furnish the same upon request to any person [illegible] to be paid when delivered by the person requesting the same and [illegible] certified under the signature of the said secretary and the seal of his department.

Carrying out the provisions of this act the secretary of agriculture convened in the city of Washington in February 1909 a committee of cotton experts [illegible] besides the department experts representatives of all [illegible] of the trade. This committee consisted of Mr. [illegible] A. A. [illegible] & Co. [illegible] Orleans [illegible] James A. [illegible] of Inman [illegible] Inman A. [illegible] Crump of [illegible] M. Crump Co. Memphis Tenn. Mr. [illegible] P. Hale of the Texas [illegible] company Boston Mr. [illegible] W. Parker [illegible] Charlotte [illegible] Martin [illegible] Barry [illegible] Co. Boston Mass. [illegible] sville of Wolf & [illegible] York City Mr. Charles [illegible] of John D. Rogers & Co. [illegible] ton Texas and [illegible] and Mr. R. L. Pennett [illegible] partment of agriculture. The committee was assisted by the following experts of [illegible] Mr. W. P. Bartlett of the [illegible] cotton committee [illegible] Mr. [illegible] chairman of the [illegible] New Orleans cotton exchange and Mr. F. R. [illegible] with the firm of Wolf & Company Dallas Texas.

The chief of the bureau of plant industry reports that the department furnished the committee every facility for its work having on hand types of cotton from the different exchanges and markets and materials for making up the grades as provided by law. The committee after due deliberation submitted a unanimous report which the honorable secretary has approved fixing the grades and making certain recommendations in connection therewith. In view of the fact that contracts are made for cotton in advance of the ensuing cotton season the committee recommended that the grades agreed upon by the committee be not promulgated for general use in trade transactions prior to September 1 1910. In order however, for the cotton trade to become fully acquainted with the grades, the department of agriculture will in a short time place sets in the hands of a limited number of associations organizations, exchanges and agricultural colleges for inspection. These sets will enable the cotton producers, cotton merchants and spinners to become familiar with them. Atlanta Journal
